Committed to Quality

What a privilege it is to be bringing you the world’s finest baskets, handcrafted in Dresden, Ohio, along with a vast assortment of other unique items that are second to none. We consider it an honor that you have chosen Dresden & Company to be part of your home and life.

Our mission is Life Made Better. This means better for you, for our Proprietors, for our families and for our communities. That might mean quality products that help you with daily routines like organizing, entertaining, setting a beautiful table or even doing the laundry. It could mean providing an opportunity to host a D&Co. party and earn benefits like half-price items and free Host Dollars. Or it could mean becoming the Proprietor of your own D&Co. business, earning extra income for you and your family!

As you explore the pages of our Home & Life Journal, I hope you will discover many things that surprise and delight you. We have incredible partners around Ohio and across the country who create beautiful, often handcrafted, products for Dresden & Company. We share some of their stories in these pages and even more online in our Look Book e-magazine.

Our goal for this Journal, and beyond, is to showcase our commitment to quality and to unique and diverse products made in America whenever possible.

So sit back, relax and enjoy the D&Co. journey.

With great respect,

Our Craft, Our Passion

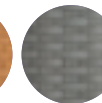

Every Dresden & Company basket has a story. Each is handcrafted in the same way baskets have been made in Dresden for more than 100 years, but no two are exactly alike. The individual beauty lies in the characteristics of the hardwood maple used and in the skillful technique of our artisans, who sign their name to every basket they weave.

Welcome Home to Classic Coupe Dinnerware

The Coupe design was first introduced nearly 70 years ago and is now enjoying an American revival. Its cohesive and versatile style features clean, simple lines and subtle handcrafted character making this collection a contemporary classic. D&Co. Classic Coupe Dinnerware seamlessly transitions from casual lunches to formal dinners and festive get-togethers. Its white color shows off your culinary creations, while its simple, clean aesthetic allows it to mix well with other pieces, including those in our American Potters’ Collection. Designed to store comfortably together, this classic style will make itself at home in any home.

What sets our Classic Coupe Dinnerware apart from the others is its exceptional and unmatched characteristics. We’ve combined the high quality of our American Potters’ Collection pieces with this new design to create a dinner set that you can use every day without worrying about constant cracking, flaking or chipping. The vitrified construction means it’s strong enough to handle the rigors of daily use while being microwave, dishwasher and oven safe.

Give Your Tabletop an Artisan Touch

The centuries-old craft of making wood bowls by hand has been passed down and perfected through generations of families. This art form practiced by the artisans at Holland Bowl Mill, a fourth-generation, 100-year-old company in Michigan, fits beautifully with our handcrafted baskets. We are proud to offer these exquisite Beech Bowls, made exclusively for D&Co.

Our bowls feature an Ash Gray hand-washed, old-fashioned milk paint stain on the outside with natural beech on the inside. The hand-applied stain results in an alluring variation of light and dark. Our bowls are both functional and decorative. Each food-safe bowl will carry a “Dresden & Company Made in America” burn.
