

It's Rewarding To Party With D&Co.!

PARTYING YOUR WAY!

Reward yourself. It's easy and fun with D&Co., where we love a good party because we're in the direct-selling, party-inspired business.

After you're done flipping through our catalog's pages and circling what you REALLY want for your home and gifts, call your Proprietor to get your personal party link. Then gather your friends and family for a shopping experience. The more your party totals, the more half-off items you can get. Plus your Host items ship for FREE!

Our generous Party Perks begin at the $200 level and just go up from there. Ready?
